

Area under the curve for differing outlier heights

